First Name	Last Name	Birthday	Pass Type

Initial Below: The undersigned in consideration of the issuance and use of the above identified Season Pass agree as the following:

- _____ * A Season Pass is non-transferable and non-refundable. The ONLY exception is if the Pass Refund Protection Policy has been purchased.
- _____ * Lost or stolen passes must be reported to the Ticket Office.
- _____ * Mt. Spokane reserves the right to cancel a pass for failure to comply with regulations herein and/or disregard for the safe use of lifts, terrain, and/or other facilities at the area. This includes but is not limited to reckless or excessive speed, skiing or snowboarding outside the ski area boundary as well as staying within the ski area boundary after Trail Closing Procedures (TCP) begins by Ski Patrol, and re-entering the ski area boundary after TCP.
- _____ * Skiing closed areas, and/or ducking rope lines or fences will result in loss of pass.
- _____ * Any rescue or pullout beyond the ski area boundary is subject to a fine.
- _____ * The Pass Holder agrees that he/she has read and will obey the Skier's and Snowboarder's Responsibility Code, which reads:
 1. Ski or snowboard under control and in such a manner you can stop or avoid others or objects.
 2. When proceeding downhill or overtaking another skier or snowboarder, you must avoid the person(s) below you.
 3. You must not stop where you obstruct a trail, or are not visible from above.
 4. When entering a trail or starting downhill, yield to others.
 5. Everyone shall use retention straps or other devices to help prevent runaway skis or snowboards.
 6. You shall keep off closed trails and posted areas and observe all posted signs
 7. Inverted aerials are not recommended.

This is a partial list. Be safety conscious.

- * Season Pass Holder must present Pass to the Ticket Checker at each lift before boarding.
- * Mt. Spokane reserves the right to change its tentative open/close dates and operating hours, as well as determine the number of lifts in operation and terrain available and/or groomed for use at any given time.
- * Mt. Spokane 2000 has the right to use any photos taken by Mt. Spokane Staff or Agents in any media of their choosing.
- * Age category is determined based on age at time of purchase.
- * All products purchased for a given season expire at the end of April. For example, if you purchased a 2018/2019 Season Pass, the ticket package is good from November 2018 to April 2019. That product will not be valid in November or December of 2019.

By initialing terms, primary Pass Holder accepts terms for every above listed Pass Holder.

The Season Pass Holder understands and acknowledges that the law of Washington State provides that all skiers and snowboarders shall conduct themselves within the limits of their ability, shall ski and snowboard under control at all times, shall not act in a manner that they may contribute to the injury of themselves or any other person; that any person who boards a lift is presumed to have sufficient abilities to do so; that each person is the sole judge of his or her skiing or snowboarding ability; that all skiers and snowboarders shall exercise reasonable care for their own safety; and that the person above, the person on foot, has the duty to avoid collisions. (CHAPTER 70.117RCW) Washington State Law prohibits: Leaving the scene of a skiing accident without obtaining assistance or notifying authorities; Skiing or snowboarding in a closed area, riding a closed lift, or skiing or snowboarding outside ski area boundaries, interfering with the safe operation of a lift; Loading or unloading a lift at other than designated crossings; Throwing or dropping of any object from a lift including littering; Failing to follow a verbal or written instruction for lift use, skiing or snowboarding near towers, equipment, vehicles and other obstacles. Season Pass Holder understands and agrees that skiing and snowboarding is a hazardous sport and that bare spots, variations in snow, ice, unpredictable terrain, bumps, moguls, stumps, forest growth, debris, rocks and other hazards or obstacles exist within Mt. Spokane Ski Area. In using the Pass and Skiing or Snowboarding at Mt. Spokane Ski Area, the Pass Holder assumes such danger, whether marked or unmarked.

The undersigned hereby RELEASES AND HOLDS HARMLESS, Mt. Spokane 2000 and the Washington State Park and Recreation Commission, and its owners, agents and employees from any and all claims and liability for injury, loss, or damages resulting from the use of the area's facilities, slopes, and lifts. Furthermore, I have read and fully understand the above contract, rules and regulations.
